

Dear Mr. Wozniak,

It was an absolute honor to have you join us for the Main Stage Discussion at Talent Arena 2025. As a leading event for top digital professionals—including software developers, architects, AI specialists, cloud engineers, DevOps experts, QA engineers, team leads, and product managers—our audience thrives on deep technical insights and forward-thinking discussions. You delivered exactly that and more.

Your headline discussion was both inspiring and insightful, filled with fascinating stories, technical expertise, and visionary perspectives on the future of technology. Your ability to engage the audience and provide thought-provoking answers made your session one of the standout moments of the event.

Beyond the main session, your participation in the exclusive Meet & Greet gave attendees a unique opportunity to connect with you on a personal level. Your approachability, enthusiasm, and generosity in sharing knowledge left a lasting impression on everyone who had the chance to interact with you.

A special mention to your incredible team, whose professionalism and support throughout the entire process ensured that everything ran smoothly. Their seamless coordination made it a pleasure to work with them from start to finish.

We would highly recommend you as a speaker for any event looking to inspire and engage a tech-savvy audience. Your presence at Talent Arena was invaluable, and we would love to welcome you again in the future!

With deep appreciation,

Francesc Fajula, CEO at Mobile World Capital Barcelona
